By Indiana State Normal School

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Normal Herald The school year opened Sept. 11, with the largest attendance of any fall term in the history of the institution. The usual number of young men are with us in spite of the fact that the new dormitory is not ready for occupancy. The enrollment at this writing is five hundred and seven, with an attendance of two hundred in the Model School. The enlarged attendance is very encouraging in view of our increased rates. There has been an unusual number of changes in the Faculty of the school this year. In addition to the change of Principal, there are six new teachers and a new steward in the school. All the new comers show adaptability, and the work moves harmoniously. After thirteen years of service at Indiana, Dr. Waller has left us. And never did a Principal leave a school more deeply regretted by trustees, teachers, students and townspeople. We hesitate to say even a small part of what we feel toward the great and good Principal whom we have loved and...
