And so, would it be possible for the United States to bring into the United States, on a duty-free basis, goods produced by local people on both sides of that border, and, in fact, in enterprises that might straddle the border between Afghanistan and Paki-stan And weve put this concept of a reconstruction opportunity zone before the Congress, in staff briefings in February, and now were going to ask for congressional support for this type of tariff reduction. Its a complicated proposal, and it deserves a lot of study. And I know that the Congress will ask lots of questions. And you should. But we think this initiative on trade, along with the initiative to help to try to bring some economic support to the tribal areas, is an effective long-term strategy. Im happy to answer questions on any of this, Mr. Chairman. I would just say two more things before I close. You...
