Forty-something Laura Marks, recently widowed and stuck in Florida with a condo she hates and a boat she can't sell, wallows in a depression of torpid TV, anything alcohol and a heaping helping of I-don't-care. But when she answers a Summons for Jury Duty she stumbles upon a gruesome trial that quickly plunges her into a world of greed, jealousy, murder and a wacky group of Runyonesque court regulars. Meanwhile a mysterious cowboy shows interest in buying her boat, her big sister moves in and someone slips threatening notes under her door. Laura grabs hold of them all - the good, the bad and the quirky - clutching them like lifelines back to the world of the living.
