Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Meaning of an University: An Inaugural Address Delivered to the Students of University College Aberystwyth on the 20th of October, 1911 Mr. Principal, Ladies and Gentlemen, I am honoured by your invitation to address you at the opening of another session, and I trust that my choice of subject does not alarm you. I offered to speak to you on the Meaning of a University, but it is no part of my purpose to spend time on the definition of familiar terms, or to attempt to extract surprising lessons from the etymology of a word that is in daily use. My interest in the subject is of another kind. By the accidents of life I have had to do with many Universities in many places; in London, where they examine without misgiving or remorse; in India, where the University of London found a congenial soil for multiplying all its worst vices; at Oxford and Cambridge, where Time and old Custom and the delights of communal life have hallowed even the frailties of these ancient...
