Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Address Reminiscences of Flushing: 1847 to 1864 At the February, 1907 meeting of the Flushing Historical Society Mr. William L. Titus presented the Society a number of copies of the Flushing Journal, some bearing dates of more than half a century ago. There were 37 copies of the Journal, in time covering a period of 17 years from 1847 to 1864. The Journal was 5 years old at the date of the earliest issue, having been issued first in 1842. During the period in which these copies under examination were issued the paper was owned and edited by Charles R.Lincoln. The issue of June, 1847, states that the office was No. 1 Cottage Place. This was the narrow thoroughfare now known as Monroe street extending eastward from Jamaica avenue at the rear of St. Josephs Convent. No. 1 was the first house on the left side of the street going towards the present Union street. The next issue in the collection, that of January 8, 1848.states that the office has been located in the brick...
