Not illustrated. 1848 Excerpt: . . . is a tree with a beautiful flower and fruit, growing in fruitful gardens. It was used in the high priests garments to mark fruitfulness and fragrance. 2. The bell was to give a pleasant tinkling sound whenever the high priest walked, in going in or coming out. How plainly did this signify that wherever Christ goes there is the fragrance of sweetest gardens, and a gladsome sound of melody! There was once a time in Scotland when our glorious High Priest walked amid the golden candlesticks--when he came into his garden, and fed among the lilies. O that Christ would come in among you, and reveal himself unto you! Then would the winter be past--the rains would be over and gone. The flowers would appear on the earth, and the time of the singing of birds be come. His presence makes summer--all his garments smell of myrrh. Your souls would become a wellwatered garden. When Jesus comes in it is gladsome music to the soul. It is like the sound of the silver trumpets; it is the melody of bells. Happy is the people that know the joyful sound--I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all people. Has the sound of a present Saviour ever fallen upon your ear Christians, you are priests. Be like Christ in this. 1. Wherever you go carry a savor of Christ. His name is like ointment poured forth; it is like the vine flourishing...
