Rebellious, sixteen-year-old Naomi craves a normal life, but unfortunately, she's a Grim by birth. That's right, she sees dead people and hoards their living essence in a stone. Not a fun occupation. In order to be good at her job, she must live among human teenagers for weeks at a time. But Naomi soon becomes attached to the kids she's been assigned to watch over. And knowing that these teens are gonna die under less than ideal circumstances, she has the opportunity to prevent their deaths from occurring. Only one big problem-interfering with death is the worst crime a Grim can commit. If she intervenes, she'll put herself and her family in danger. Naomi must make the hardest choice of her career, go against the sacred covenant or watch her new friends walk blindly to their deaths. Only one thing is for certain-Naomi has a grim knack for finding trouble and she's about to break all the rules. 87,000 words/Ages 13 and up.
