Isherwood on Writing

By Christopher Isherwood

University of Minnesota Press. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 208 pages. Dimensions: 8.6in. x 5.6in. x 1.0in. In the 1960s, Christopher Isherwood gave an unprecedented series of lectures at California universities on the theme A Writer and His World. During this time Isherwood, who would liberate the memoir and become the founding father of modern gay writing, spoke openly for the first time about his craft on writing for film, theater, and novels and on spirituality. Isherwood on Writing brings these public addresses together to reveal a distinctly and surprisingly American Isherwood. Given at a critical time in Isherwood's career, these lectures mark the era when he turned from fiction to memoir. In free-flowing, wide-ranging discussions, he reflects on such topics as why writers write, what makes a novel great, and what influenced his own work. Isherwood talks about his working relationship with W. H. Auden; his literary friendships with E. M. Forster, Virginia Woolf, Stephen Spender, Aldous Huxley, and Somerset Maugham; and his work in the film industry in London and Hollywood. He also explores uncharted territory in candid comments on his own work, something not contained in his diaries. Isherwood on Writing uncovers an important and often-misunderstood time in Isherwood's life in America....
